8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 DREW YIM, et al.,

14 Defendants.

CASE NO. CR11-131MJP

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR
BILL OF PARTICULARS

16 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Drew Yim's motion for a bill of 17 particulars in which Defendant Svetlana Yim has joined. (Dkt. Nos. 351, 352, 381.) Having 18 reviewed the motion, the government's response (Dkt. No. 402), the reply (Dkt. No. 414), and all
19 related papers, the Court GRANTS the motion.

20 Analysis

21 Defendant Yim has asked for a bill of particulars as to Count 5 in the Second Superseding
22 Indictment, which charges him with conspiracy to engage in money laundering for an
23 unspecified duration. (Dkt. No. 352 at 1.)
24

1 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 7(f), the Court may direct the filing of 2 bill of particulars. The Ninth Circuit has explained that the purposes of the bill of particulars are
3 threefold: “[T]o inform the defendant of the nature of the charge against him with sufficient
4 precision to enable him to prepare for trial, to avoid or minimize the danger of surprise at the 5 time of trial, and to enable him to plead his acquittal or conviction in bar of another prosecution
6 for the same offense when the indictment itself is too vague, and indefinite for such purposes.”
7 United States v. Ayers, 924 F.2d 1468, 1483 (9th Cir. 1991) (quotation omitted).

8 As to Count 5, the Court finds a bill of particulars must be provided to specify the 9 duration of the conspiracy and the financial transactions that are part of the charge. Count 5 is a
10 complex charge whose unspecified duration presents Defendants with the task of sorting through 11 an enormous volume of information. To avoid surprise and to assist Defendants in focusing on 12 the conduct that is the basis for Count 5, the Court finds that a bill of particulars is needed. This 13 will assist both sides to give some clarity to the facts at issue in this Count, and to sort out what 14 should included and what should be eliminated. The Court thus orders the government to 15 produce a bill of particulars specifying when the conspiracy began and which financial 16 transactions allegedly constitute money laundering in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(a)(1). The 17 government is to provide the bill of particulars within 14 days of entry of this order.

18 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to all counsel.

19 Dated this 16th day of December, 2011.
